New Tirul

A large city located in northeastern Cordann.

The city is relevant in Crooked Wings. First of all, Ultraviolet Industries, Inc has a large placement here. Second of all, it is also a port city, one where many immigrants arrive. Third, it is the largest city in Cordann.

New Yirooburg

A city located in northeastern Cordann. While it is by no means small, it has only about 1/21th the population of New Tirul.

The city has been reshaped by the new Violet Fulgurite power plant.

The protagonists of Crooked Wings are initially stationed here, and the majority of their early work takes place here.
